THE BAND STAND
By ANN EVANS
Saturday was a special day, with a special duo to take us to a special occasion, as the Blue Devil Band journeyed to Savannah to participate in the annual Christmas parade. This was sponsored by the Merchant Council of the Chamber of Commerce.

We were one of twelve bands in the parade which began in Park Extension and moved along Gwinnett street to West Broad, then north to Broughton street, and east on Broughton to East Broad. The band was awarded first prize, based on marching, majorettes, uniforms, and presentation of music.

In the band competition our band was awarded first prize, based on marching, majorettes, uniforms, and presentation of music. The Thanksgiving football game here today will bring to a close our 1950 season. We have enjoyed providing half-time shows for all the Blue Devil games, both at home and away.

Statesboro Gets $500 For 3rd Place In Champ Home Town Contest

J. Gilbert Cone, mayor, accepted the award on behalf of the city. T. A. Gibson, vice president of the Georgia Power Company, presided at the Champion Home Town Dinner at the Forest Heights Country Club on Tuesday night of this week.

Following the dinner, Kermit R. Carr, general chairman of the local committee which prepared Statesboro's contest report, presented officials of the Georgia Power Company and other guests.

From the Atlanta office of the company there were Frank Hood, of the community development department; Miss A. M. Gippert, and Bill Corley of the advertising department; Henry Setze, H. M. Yarborough, C. C. McCollum, of the Augusta division; Earl DeLoach, of the Augusta Herald; and Mr. and Mrs. Wade Durden of Graymont.

Local guests included members of the committee and civic leaders of Statesboro.

Mr. Gibson told how the Champion Home Town Contest has grown from its inception in 1944 to the present. He stated that the key to the success of the program is the local initiative of the citizens in communities like Statesboro. "We only want to inspire citizens to make an earnest appraisal of their progress and become aware of their deficiencies," he said.

Mr. Wardie, in presenting the awards, commended the citizens of Statesboro on the progress the city had made in 1949-50. "If people all over Georgia would work like you people we would have a better place in which to live," he said.

"We have a selfish interest in this program," Mr. Wardie continued, "for, if your economic level rises through the efforts you put forth, our economic level rises also."

In accepting the awards, Mayor Cone said, "This contest has done more in Georgia to inspire and promote progress than anything that has happened in the state. We appreciate it and are grateful."

A musical program was given by Sgt. Rudolph Jorgenson, U. S. Army, Camp Gordon, Augusta, accompanied by Mrs. E. L. Barnes.

Don Is Sworn Into Service By Father
A father, veteran of 32 years of Naval service, swore in his son as an Ensign, USNR, in Statesboro Sunday.

The father was Lieut. Cmdr. A. M. Gullidge, Medical Service Corps, USN, who is on duty at Sixth District Headquarters in Charleston, S. C. The son was John Richard Gullidge, a World War II enlisted man. The ceremony took place at the Gullidge home, 8 Broad street.

"It was one of the proudest moments of my life," Lieut. Cmdr. Gullidge said.

Ensign Gullidge applied for his commission shortly after graduation last June from the University of Georgia. He previously had attended Georgia Teachers College in 1946-48 after having been discharged from the Naval service. The younger Gullidge entered the Navy in July, 1944, as an enlisted man and saw patrol craft service in Borneo, China, Korea, and Okinawa waters. He is entitled to wear the American Defense, China Service, and World War II victory medals. He is presently employed in Atlanta.

Sammy Tillman Makes Scholastic Society
Sammy Tillman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tillman, last week was named to Phi Beta Kappa, the country's highest scholastic honor.

Phi Beta Kappa is the oldest American fraternity and membership is based on scholarship.

Tillman is president of the Sigma Chi social fraternity, secretary of the Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Commissioned officer status. He has been on duty in Sixth Naval District headquarters since May 1, 1949.

The younger Gullidge was administered his oath in the presence of his mother and sister, Shirley, 18, a student at Georgia Teachers College. Friends who also witnessed the ceremony included Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Waters, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parker, Mrs. Mattie Parker, Harold Waters, and Mooney Prosser, of Statesboro, and Jim Groat, of Waycross, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Olliff, the graduate's parents, and Lottie Mae Olliff, sister, were present at the exercises.

Young Olliff was a member of the National Guard when it was secured his diploma. Because the unit he was short was in his service in the army would qualify him for the credit, so they took the proper action to qualify him for his diploma.

He is now with the 101st AAA Gun Battalion at Camp Stewart.

Our Recreation Program Spreads

THE RECREATION PROGRAM of Statesboro moves forward and includes another group of this community's youth. Friday night of last week, nearly a hundred teenagers gathered at the Community Center and there square danced, round danced, played games, ate tasty food, and drank soft drinks . . . and had a wonderful time.

Here is a group of our youth which is in, what our parents call, "the most difficult age"—that of the teens.

The recreation program was providing outlet for the physical energies of the boys and girls of most ages—football, baseball, basketball, Girl Scouts, Brownies, Happy-Go-Luckies, Knot Holers, the Midgets, the swimming pool—all these.

But the recreation program director knew that the program's objective must include more than physical recreation, provision for performing the social graces for young boys and girls in their teens.

And, here it is. Known as the Drag On Inn Club, those from thirteen to nineteen gather at the Community Center on Friday nights to dance, talk, enjoy each other's company, and eat.

We Are Third Best

STATESBORO is the third best city in Georgia in the 5,000 to 10,000 population group.

It was so judged by a committee of leading citizens of the state who studied evidence presented by the citizens of Statesboro in the Georgia Power Company's annual Champion Home Town contest.

And Tuesday night of this week, Mayor J. Gilbert Cone accepted a check for $500 and a plaque from Robert Wardle Jr., manager of the Community Development Division of the Georgia Power Company, for the progress our community made in the twelve-month period from October, 1949, to October, 1950.

T. A. Gibson, vice president of the Georgia Power Company, presided at the presentation of the award at a "Champion Home Town Dinner" at the Forest Heights Country Club, attended by more than 125 of the community's citizens.

Both Mr. Gibson and Mr. Wardle commended the community on its progress and the showing it made in the state-wide contest.

The contest is good for a community like ours, for it provided us with a yardstick by which we measure our progress.

It puts the spotlight on us and furnishes us with additional incentive in striving to make our community a better one in which to live.

For the community, we say, "Thanks" to the Georgia Power Company.

Give Thanks Again

EVEN WITH Thanksgiving just last week, we could just as well observe today as another Thanksgiving Day.

With evidence of the "big freeze" still about us, we should give thanks that we do not live in those sections of the country where our last Saturday's low temperature is higher than their average.

So, let's all be thankful that we live in Statesboro, Bulloch county, Georgia, where, usually, "Nature Smiles and Progress Has the Right-of-way." And when nature does frown on us it's only to emphasize the richness of our blessings.

Confusing, Isn't It?

IN EVERY quarter there is much talk about our foreign policy. Some say we don't have a policy, some say we have a good one, some blow their tops over it.

We have come to know that the Atlantic Ocean does not separate us from Europe and Africa, and that the Pacific Ocean does not separate us from Asia and Australia and New Zealand. We have come to know that these oceans only connect us with these places.

But there's no wonder that citizens like you and us stay in a confused state of mind over what our government is doing, what is should do, and what it should not do.

Look at the record as compiled by a recent issue of the U. S. News and World Report:

In the 1940's the U. S. risked and fought a war to save China and Japan.

We commend Max Lockwood, director of the recreation program, and the parents who are helping him with "Drag On Inn Club." The community thanks Mrs. W. A. Bowen, Mrs. B. B. Morris, Mrs. Ruth Sewell, Mrs. Prince H. Preston, Mrs. Roy Beaver, Mrs. J. G. Attaway, Mrs. Glenn Jennings, Mrs. Paul Carroll, and Mrs. Thad J. Morris.

It is our intention to keep the Statesboro recreation program in the spotlight of our community activities.

To us there is nothing finer, next to our churches, our schools, than our recreation program. It is for our youth. It is for their growth and development.

And in its two year's existence it has paid dividends that cannot be estimated in dollars and cents.

It has attracted new citizens to make their homes here. It has relieved the anxieties of parents as to the whereabouts, for a great part of the day, of their children.

It has provided wholesome activities for growing bodies and developing minds.

It is encouraging cooperation among our youth.

In short, it is great.

Then China, saved, five years later is threatening us with war.

From 1941 to 1945 Japan was a mortal enemy, and one to be destroyed. We defeated Japan and now, five years later, it is the most likely U. S. ally in the Far East.

We spent four years, suffered 580,000 casualties, and spent billions of dollars in conquering Germany. Five years later we want to rearm Germany and make her our ally.

"During World War II Russia was on our side, an ally, and we let her have billions in lend-lease. Now, five years later Russia is our Number One enemy, toying with war.

Four years ago Yugoslavia, Communist-ruled, shot down U. S. planes. This week's newspapers report U. S. aid to Tito's Yugoslavia.

Britain, our mother country and ally in World War II, is lending the effort to get Communist China in the United Nations. And Britain, dealing with China diplomatically, is fighting Chinese troops in Korea.

Confusing, isn't it?

Only Twenty More Days

IT'S LATER than you think.

That's what the merchants of Statesboro would have us believe.

And they would point to last week end when so many citizens of Statesboro and Bulloch county were caught short in the big freeze . . . unprepared.

Christmas is almost on us, they say. And they urge us to "Do your Christmas shopping now!"

And they have a point here. For, how many of us "mess" around until the last minute and then have to be satisfied with what the smart shoppers have turned down?

All merchants of Statesboro have complete stocks of Christmas merchandise. You'll find that they have just about as much as you'll find in our big city neighbors. And think of the time and effort saved by shopping at home. However, if you can't find what you want at home, then try elsewhere.

But shop at home first.

And, remember—it's later than you think! Only 20 shopping days before Christmas.

We Suggest . . .

GIVE IT to the kids, through the recreation program.

We can think of no better use to which to put the $500 check presented by the Georgia Power Company to the City of Statesboro for winning third place in the Champion Home Town Contest.

Verse for This Week

Can You Afford to Do Less?

Editor's Uneasy Chair

WE'RE IN the post-Thanksgiving doldrums.

Last week we made a deal of our staff in which we swapped them Friday and Saturday morning for the extra effort it took to get our last week's paper out early enough for pre-Thanksgiving delivery. They accepted and we did get the paper out early Wednesday.

Having made the deal, they carried out their part of the agreement, we were left with Friday and Saturday on our hands. Thanksgiving was spent in traditional Thanksgiving routine. Up for breakfast, to the Methodist Church for the Union Thanksgiving Service, then back home for turkey and cranberries and ambrosia. Then all afternoon with the newspapers. Supper, and to bed.

Friday we drove to Macon to look at a new newspaper press we were interested in. Back home Friday night, and plans to work in the yard Saturday.

ALL'S FAIR

By Jane

THERE HAS BEEN much variety in weather, entertainment, and Thanksgiving parties. The cold weather may have disturbed some of us, but where we live and think, weather and entertainment are of minor concern.

World events are really disturbing and alarming. Statesboro and Bulloch county may not feel the necessity of using their influence and brain in defense of real issues they prefer to do a little more boxing at trumped up issue. We may think we have little power in world affairs. I believe that I write the truth when I contend that the average citizen in Georgia has more power in the Federal government than he or she has in our own state. I was pleased to hear that Dr. Marvin S. Pittman was called to Washington, D. C., by the War and State Departments to attend a conference consisting of those who had served in the reconstruction of occupied countries. Dr. Pittman, who rendered valuable services in both Germany and Korea, left Tuesday afternoon for Washington to give members of the War and State Departments the benefit of his firsthand observations and opinions he formed of the characteristics, the ideologies, and practices of countries where he worked.

Mr. Commander A. M. Gullidge had the pleasure of swearing his son, Richard Gullidge, into the U. S. Naval Reserve as an ensign. Richard, who is working in Atlanta, received notice of his commission in October, but he waited purposely to have his father swear him in.

We saw Mrs. Otis Hollingsworth (Frances) in the hospital Sunday night. She, despite of a recent operation, or (I should put it this way), because of a recent operation—she was smiling and holding forth on her wonderful girls. We were quite glib. We thought we were listening to a proud mother—maybe of twins. Not so. You see, Frances is one of our many career women and she referred to her twin workers. It seems that Frances is "Queen Bee" of one of the Augusta units promoting a fund making sales for Stanley Home Products. We were hearing something new when she referred to Etta Boyd as one of her girls. Both Frances and Etta received two of the four loving cups offered in the Augusta district. I admit that I am a bit of a snob when they do, but I know one thing—they all adore Frances. Her mirror

Then it happened. Saturday, with 13 degree weather, was the coldest day in the history of Bulloch county since February 1, 1917, when the thermometer registered 10 degrees—22 degrees below freezing. So, instead of working in the yard, we stayed in the house, reading everything we had accumulated, which had gone unread for weeks.

Sunday to church, and Sunday afternoon with the newspapers. And here it is Monday morning . . . and we're not a bit interested in working—just want to sit where it's warm and read newspapers, or catch up on the world news. But that can't be—there's a week's paper before us.

STORY OF THE WEEK: Alfred Dorman tells of a friend of his who bought a thermometer and hung it on a nail on the back of his head. When the big freeze came Saturday the mercury in the thermometer dropped so low it bent the nail.

THE MAIN TOPIC of conversation Monday was busted auto engine blocks, frozen water pipes, tractors frozen, crops ruined, and flowers turned black.

We talked to Mr. W. C. Cromley Monday morning and he reported that the official government thermometer by which Mr. Cromley makes his official weather reports registered a low of 13 degrees Saturday. Many tales of thermometers dropping to 8, 10 and 12 degrees are going the rounds, but Mr. Cromley's thermometer is the one you can quote as being correct. Thirteen degrees it was.

OUR HEART goes out to the boys in Korea—fighting a war in the cold is rugged. If we gotta fight again, we want to do it in the jungles of the South Pacific where you just sweat it out.

Carolina, where they visited all the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Dekle. They left here Sunday before Thanksgiving and visited Mrs. W. W. Perry, of Concord, whom you'll remember as Evelyn; then on to Chapel Hill to spend a day or two with Mrs. Hugh Cole (Mary Lee) and family, and all of them assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Highsmith in Salisbury, N. C., for Thanksgiving. Mrs. Bob is the former Margie Dekle. The young Mrs. Dekle says, "We have seven grandchildren." She declared that it was the nicest trip she had ever had in her life. The weather was perfect up there, warm and sunny. They reached Statesboro Friday to be greeted by sleet and frozen water pipes.

As ever, JANE.

MR. AND MRS. J. W. RUCKER HOLD OPEN HOUSE ON FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY. The country home of Mrs. J. W. Rucker was the scene last Friday afternoon of "open house" as friends called to congratulate the fine couple on their golden anniversary. Receiving with the guests as they came up in cars and in some cases, my own, for example, he came to the car and told me a joke that, for several reasons, I omit from this column. Alice Wilcox, my next door neighbor, went with me, and we really had a delightful time.

Mr. Rucker's fine sons, with their wives and children, because of the resourcefulness and ambition of his father, have managed for themselves places of honor in their fields of endeavor.

But it is not our intention to give "Tater" all the credit. Lily Belle, who received a proposal of marriage under the shade of a sycamore tree by the light of the moon when twelve years old, married at eighteen. When, again, under the same sycamore, young Weston Rucker asked Lily Belle to marry, she said, "I picked the best—when I picked my wife."

And adds that "the trouble with people these days and times is that they don't settle down and go to work. They want to frolic too much."

Man In His Role As Christmas Shopper

THE TOPIC of conversation these days is man and his role as a Christmas shopper. Wives are discussing their husbands' and recalling their former Christmas presents from him. Even the magazines are full of the poor man's mistakes.

One young wife said the other day that she knows she'll get earrings for Christmas. I asked why. She said, "Because I've already made a long list of things that I want, all practical, such as a skill, a part for my sewing machine, etc., and I know he'll give me earrings." She went to say that she had told him that she wasn't going to tell him anymore what she wanted because she wanted to be surprised.

Another wife in town mourns to think of Christmas because her husband has a passion for lady gowns and frilly alps. She likes tailored underthings and gowns.

Still another wife is more clever and, shortly before her husband's Christmas shopping begins, she gets down a box with a couple of "pretties" and leaves them out so that he knows she has a good supply on hand.

Women who live in Statesboro are so much more fortunate than our city sisters. Here the wives can go down to a jewelry store and admire, out loud, certain gifts. The husband comes down later and is carefully guided by the employee. Or else the wife proceeds him to a department store and admires certain wearing apparel. The salesperson takes mental note of the color and size. When the loving man comes around he has plenty of help in his buying.

One husband remarked the other day that he had such a time buying just the right thing for his spouse that he just takes her along to pick it out. This seems to be a pretty good idea.

But I like surprises and, even though I drop plenty of hints, I still prefer to suffer the consequences and take the surprise. One Christmas I recall vividly. It was during one of our leanest (the fat ones have never come) financial years. For several years my wardrobe had consisted of hand-me-downs from members of the family. (The dresses were nice enough but the previous owners had all been shorter waisted than I.) Somehow, that particular Christmas my mouth fairly watered for a cheap but new dress in my size.

On Christmas morning, to my amazement, there was for me a beautiful, handpainted, china plate (made in France), with a music box concealed in its base. Of course, I couldn't wear it, but my disappointment was momentary. The music box has been greatly cherished and enjoyed by each member of the family. It holds each birthday cake and is quite a tradition in the family, so this particular surprise has grown dear with the years.

One of the prize stories about Christmas presents is about an acquaintance who had heard his wife talk about a friend's silver and how she longed to own some. The man knew his wife had decided to buy so he hit upon this plan. He bought some beautiful silver and called his wife to come to his office. When she arrived he told her that their best friend had bought the silver for her wife and wanted to get her opinion before he made the final purchase. The wife would be insulted to receive such an impersonal gift from her husband. The poor man took the silver back and swore gently that a man just can't please a woman, anyhow.

A new wife said the other day that men are so funny about their gifts to their wives, always buying the wrong things. And she added that she couldn't understand the way they took on over getting ties and socks. "After all, that's all there is to buy a man," she said.

Farm Bureau and Associated Women Will Meet Wednesday Night, Dec. 6

BY MRS. JOHN A. ROBERTSON

Next Wednesday night, December 6, the monthly meetings of the Farm Bureau and Associated Women will be held in the Community House and the home-making department of the school.

The ladies' meeting will be in the form of a Christmas party and gifts will be exchanged. Hostesses will be Mrs. W. D. Lee, chairman, assisted by Mrs. H. G. Parrish Sr., Mrs. H. G. Parrish Jr., Mrs. F. C. Rozier, Mrs. John Bushing Jr., Mrs. T. A. Dornay, Mrs. Dan Hagan, and Mrs. Hamp Smith.

Jack Pollard, of the U. S. Air Force, stationed at San Antonio, Texas, for the past month, visited relatives here during the Thanksgiving holidays. He has been sent to Ft. Dix, N. J., and will later be sent to an air base in Bermuda.

Les Roy Cook Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Les Roy Cook, was seriously injured September 5 in combat in Korea. He is spending two weeks here with his parents. For the past six weeks he has been in a government hospital in Pensacola, Fla. When he returns to Pensacola he will undergo an operation on his hand, which was badly shattered, and it will be necessary to amputate some of his fingers.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bland and Mr. and Mrs. John Rushing Sr. spent Thanksgiving Day with relatives in Beaufort, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Williams and little son spent Thanksgiving with relatives at Rincon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Dozier spent the Thanksgiving holidays in New Orleans.

Mrs. Effie Seckinger, Misses Madge and Jane Seckinger, and Mrs. John Seckinger, of Rincon, were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Williams.

Mrs. Felix Parrish and her guest, Mrs. Nora Hoydt, of Compton, Calif., have been spending several days at Mrs. Parrish's home at Shalimar, Fla.

Mrs. J. H. Hinton is spending several days this week in Miami, attending the National Conference of Future Homemakers of America.

Farm Bureau Carl Iler Retained As Esia President; Dan C. Lee Will Head Stilson Chapter

Carl Iler will again be president of the Esia Farm Bureau and Dan C. Lee will lead the Stilson chapter next year.

These two elections were held last week at the regular meeting of the chapters. Esia is the baby chapter in the county, being organized last year. It started off with 40 members and now has 56. S. W. Stirling Jr. was named secretary. Clisby Denmark asked that he not be considered for a third term as president. Clarence Graham asked the group not to consider him for a third term as president. Gerald Brown was named vice president at Stilson after serving two years as secretary. Francis Groover was elected secretary.

The proposed rural telephone program was discussed at both meetings last week and members were named to canvass the community for those who wanted phones under the program.

Mrs. Dan C. Lee, president of the county chapter of Associated Women, reported on the state convention held recently to the Stilson chapter. She expressed belief that everyone attending a state convention and seeing firsthand what the Farm Bureau is doing will always be a strong worker for the organization. She urged all who can to attend all future state and national meetings.

Mrs. Graham endorsed everything Mrs. Lee said about the convention. He stated that the Farm Bureau is on the march, and would continue to help farmers and businessmen with its achievements.

Portal News Election To Be Held December 2 To Select Three Council Members

All voters are urged to go to the polls and vote Saturday, December 2, at which time three councilmen will be elected.

The ballot will carry the names of E. C. Carter, W. W. Ward, and G. E. McBride as candidates to succeed themselves, with W. L. Bishop as the only opposition for election. The present councilmen will serve until January, 1951, in completing the present term.

THANKSGIVING DINNER
Mrs. A. J. Bowen entertained with a family turkey dinner last Thursday evening at 6 o'clock. Her guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bowen and Mary Nelson of Statesboro, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Bowen, Bill, and Andrew of Savannah, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jordan, Jimmie, and Beekie of Sylvania, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Bowen, Miss Grace Bowen, and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Kinsman of Atlanta.

MISCELLANEOUS TEA
Miss Joyce Parrish, of Augusta, entertained Monday afternoon, November 20, at the home of her parents with a miscellaneous tea, honoring Miss Jackie Harrison, of Kite, whose marriage to James Bryan, of Brooklet, was an event of Thanksgiving Day.

The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion with white chrysanthemums. Quite a number of their friends from Augusta, Brooklet, and Portial called during the afternoon.

Miss Parrish was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. Lulu Parrish, Mrs. Ida Hinton, Mrs. E. C. Watkins, Mrs. Raymond Summerlin, and Mrs. A. D. Milford.

An ice course was served the guests by Misses Sara Hinton and Jenny Shearouse. Miss Mahala Harrison, sister of the bride, passed the mints.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Miller spent Thanksgiving with their daughter, Mrs. James Blackmon, Mr. Black-

REVEREND J. D. CORBITT

Miss Lounell Brown, of Swainsboro and Dawson, became the bride of the Reverend J. D. Corbitt Jr., of Statesboro and Irwin, Wednesday, November 15, at the First Methodist Church in Swainsboro. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Corbitt Sr., of Irwin, father of the groom, at 2 p. m. in the presence of the immediate families.

White chrysanthemums and gladioli interspersed with fern formed the background for the wedding by candlelight. The organist, Rev. Archie Haygood, of Statesboro, played traditional wedding music during the ceremony, and Bill Fox, of Statesboro, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The lovely bride was given in marriage by her brother, J. Harold Brown, of Moultrie. Her dress was of slate blue satin with sweetheart neckline and three-quarter length sleeves, and her accessories were of pink and black. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid and her only ornament was a pearl necklace, a gift of the groom.

Mrs. W. E. Stone, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. Stone's dress was of forest green tulle and she carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

Rev. Sanford Brown, brother of the bride, was the groom's best man.

Following the ceremony, the bride and groom were entertained at a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stone in Swainsboro. The table was covered with a hand-made crocheted tablecloth and centerpiece was the traditional wedding cake.

After the reception, Rev. and Mrs. Corbitt moved to the mountains. For travel Mrs. Corbitt chose grey wool jersey with black and white accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Mrs. Corbitt is employed by the Emanuel county schools. Reverend Corbitt, who is a student at Georgia Teachers College, is assistant pastor of the First Methodist Church in Statesboro.

Out-of-town guests included: Rev. and Mrs. Jefferson D. Corbitt Sr. and daughters, Misses Maxine and Dottie Corbitt, of Irwin; Mr. and Mrs. James Holbrook and children, of Hartwell; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brown, of Moultrie; Mrs. William H. Moore, of Broxton; and Miss Ruth Bennett, of Madison.

MRS. S. B. ZEIGLER HONOURED AT PARTIES

Mrs. S. B. Zeigler, of Nashville, was feted on her recent visit to her daughter, Mrs. H. P. Jones, and family.

On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Zeigler had a lovely social gathering at the country club honoring Mrs. Zeigler. Guests were invited for nine tables. Each table had a low arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums and near the entrance was a huge urn filled with yellow mums. A palm tree decorated the table at the back of the club parlor. Lemon chiffon pie, coffee, and mints were served.

Boxes of shelled pecans were given as prizes. Mrs. Hinton Booth won top score, Mrs. C. B. Mathews low and Mrs. Thad Morris cut. Mrs. Zeigler received a linen handkerchief from her hostess.

On Tuesday morning, Mrs. J. F. Spiers entertained at Sevel House for Mrs. Zeigler. Mrs. John Robert Tillman's guests, her sisters, Mrs. George Wicker of Arlington, Va., and Mrs. James Helton of Milledgeville. Delicious and decorative open-faced sandwiches, cookies, and coffee were served to the twenty-six guests. The honor guests were presented matching pastel handkerchiefs and lapel flowers.

Your key to greater hauling profits

In these uncertain days it's wise to buy a rugged truck that can roll with the punches for years to come. Big fleet operators who keep careful check on all makes of trucks tell us that GMC's are consistent standouts for long life with minimum maintenance.

That goes for all GMC's from 1/2-ton models up. Many GMC Diesel truck-tractors are still highballing loads with more than a million miles of over-the-road service behind them.

The reason is—every GMC is all truck! Every GMC is designed by truck engineers for truck service with 100% truck-built parts. You get a real truck engine with high horsepower and higher sustained torque—more pull—an engine that delivers full power without eating its heart out!

There are many other extra-value reasons why a GMC is your best buy for the long haul. We'll be glad to give you proof!

Brownies Are Making Plans For Their Annual Christmas Party

The Brownies are making plans for a Christmas party. Along with the good news this week comes some bad news. The Brownies leaders have found it necessary to close registration in the Brownies. There are so many joining the group that it is now filled, and registration will be closed until after the first of the year. If you want to place your child on the waiting list, call the Recreation Center, 406-J, and give your name to Max Lockwood. Your child will then get the first vacancy that exists.

Brownie meetings last from 3:30 until 5 p. m. After 5 o'clock the mothers are asked to pick up the children at the Center instead of at the pool.

At the next meeting of the nursery group, this Saturday morning, the kiddies will make plans for a pet show which will be held the following Saturday at the Recreation Center. Mrs. Frank Wireman is in charge of the nursery group and all mothers are asked to take advantage of the nursery hour. This group meets at the Recreation Center each Saturday from 9 a. m. until 12 o'clock.

MODEL AIRPLANE CLUB
If you are interested in working with model airplanes you are invited to come down to the swimming pool any Wednesday night, from 7 to 9 o'clock. The model airplane club is sponsored by the Statesboro Auto Parts Co., and equipment is furnished to work with. This group is open to all with. This group is open to all with. This group is open to all with.

NURSERY NEWS
At the next meeting of the nursery group, this Saturday morning, the kiddies will make plans for a pet show which will be held the following Saturday at the Recreation Center.

THE BAND STAND
By ANN EVANS

Sunday, December 10, has been set as the date for our annual Christmas concert. The time is 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

The concert this year will feature Don Flinders playing the marimba. He will play "Ava Maria," accompanied by the entire band.

The concert will be held in the new auditorium of the Statesboro High School. It is free and all citizens of Statesboro and Bulloch county will find a welcome there.

The band wound up its 1900 football season on Thanksgiving when it put on a special half-time show at the Statesboro-E. C. I. "Turkey Day" game.

Using a new method of getting out on the field, the band formed the letter "B" and marched directly from the sideline onto the field. While in front of the E. C. I. cheering section, we formed the other letters of E. C. I.

We then went into an "S" and marched back to our side of the field to play the Alma Mater.

Mr. McLenon, band director, then led us in "Come Ye Thankful People." A cross was formed as we played "Beautiful Savior." Then after counter-marching we marched off the field.

On Tuesday of last week we presented several novelty numbers in the assembly program. We played "Syncope" and "Hoop-de-doo" and "Charlotte Harbor Stomp." We also played a concert piece "Trumpet Tune."

Mrs. John Everett returned Friday morning from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Marvin Blewett, and family in Augusta.

BETA SIGMA PHI MEETS
Mrs. Lamar Trapnell and Mrs. Jack Wynn were hostesses to the Beta Sigma Phi sorority on Monday night at the home of Mrs. T. E. Rushing on Cliff street.

Following the regular order of business, Mrs. F. C. Parker Jr. and Mrs. Mark Toole gave an interesting program on gardening and landscaping. The group was delighted to have Mrs. Arnold Rose, newly-elected sponsor, present at this meeting. During the social hour, the hostesses served lemon pie, toasted pecans, and coffee.

Members attending were Mrs. E. W. Barnes, Mrs. F. C. Parker Jr., W. W. Gay, Mrs. Roy Hitt, Mrs. Earl Lee, Mrs. J. E. Bowen, Mrs. Charles Robbins, Mrs. Bernard Scott, Mrs. Mark Toole, Mrs. Lamar Trapnell, and Mrs. Jack Wynn.

PERSONALS
Mrs. J. P. Foy and Mrs. Carl Sanders, of Augusta, were visitors in Savannah Monday.

Mrs. Madge Phillips has returned home after spending last week with her sister and family, Major and Mrs. J. C. Schwalbe, at Falls Church Va., and Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bunce and Isaac Bunce had as dinner guests Sunday night, November 19, Mrs. Laura McElven of Washington, D. C., Mrs. J. A. Bunce Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Billy Simmons and son, Bill, and daughters, Nan and Renie Simmons and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bunce and Paul Jr. of Fort Worth.

SOCIAL ITEMS
ENTERTAIN FOR FRIENDS AT BUFFET SUPPER
The Hubert Brannen cabin at Brannen Pond was the scene Saturday night of a buffet supper, with Teresa Foy and Albert Brannen Jr. as hosts to their friends.

The affair was delightfully informal, with many guests appearing in dungarees. A huge fireplace filled with logs furnished a cheerful atmosphere. Games and dancing were enjoyed. Hot dogs and buns, spaghetti, potato chips, salad, pickles, and hot chocolate were served. The table, with a green and brown cover, had for decoration a pumpkin in the center with autumn leaves and colorful fruits extending the length of the table.

Thirty-two girls and boys were present.

WILDLIFE new look

by Joe Stearns

Fish, Game Prosperity Ahead!

It seems that Hamilton Ralls, the new Director of the Game & Fish Commission, has come up with plans to relieve some of the terrific hunting pressure in Georgia. Ralls has his eyes open for the future and his ideas appear to contain a great deal of logic, sincerity and conservation progress.

At a recent meeting of officers of Sportsmen's Clubs, where an open discussion was undertaken on the Clark Hill Project, Ralls put in some strong words for a hunting reform to be set up in this new and valuable development.

Some 27,000 acres already have been set aside for a wildlife refuge. The objective is to have 100,000 acres where, in cooperation with the U. S. Fish & Wildlife Service, the State Game & Fish Commission can accomplish this miracle alone.

The Sportsmen's Clubs are behind this plan, roll up their sleeves and get angry enough to defend this refuge against fish thieves and game bandits, there is no doubt that a successful and satisfactory result will be forthcoming.

Turn loose fifteen game hogs in this development and the result of five or ten years of careful planning and high hopes can be destroyed in a matter of weeks. H. E. Clary, a representative who resides in Thomson, Ga., has openly declared that he will devote much of his energy and time in an effort to see that the first violator feels the full weight of the law. What a shame Georgia does not have a dozen Clarys in every county.

State License for 1925

Emory L. Bruce, now of Atlanta, still has a Georgia hunting license purchased at Jeffersonville in 1925. Peter S. Twitty was the Director of the Wildlife Department at the time. You were allowed 20 quail a day, 25 doves a day, 50 ducks. The license was printed on linen paper. Imagine one man killing 50 ducks in one day legally! The above bag limits are noticeably ridiculous. Still, even today's bag limits aren't much lower and certainly not in line with today's heavy hunting pressure.

Some History of Our Trout

C. C. James, fish hatchery expert from Marietta who is the man you can thank for the re-stocking of our trout streams, has an interesting story to tell on trout.

C. C. says the first rainbow trout ever placed in Georgia streams were liberated in Nonotooly Creek along about 1915. Until that time, we only had a sprinkling of brook trout in our mountain streams. There is a great deal of talk that Lee Anderson, of Dawsonville, was the fellow who turned loose that first batch of rainbows.

Henry Hamilton and Hubert Judd, a couple of grand sportsmen at Dalton, are the men we can thank for the introduction of brown trout in our streams, according to C. C. These fellows released the German browns along about 1926 in the Conasauga River. Just thought you'd like to know.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

A "Merry Christmas" To You, Too!

We're going to have a community Christmas tree in front of the Court House this year! Judge Cunningham brought the matter up in a meeting last Thursday. Passed unanimously.

We saw Jackson, the forest ranger, and he showed where there's a whooper of a cedar tree. Easy Roberts and Handy Peterson are going out to do the cutting—and Cappy Miller will make it out to the road with his team.

We're using Sandy Johnson's flat-bed truck for hauling. Hammy Gilbert—who's a telephone linesman—will supervise setting it up. Buzz Ellis, the electrician, is donating the lights.

From where I sit, you not only have more fun when everyone cooperates voluntarily, but you get better results. A good example is the Self-Regulation Program sponsored by the Brewing Industry. Under this voluntary program, retailers selling beer co-operate by keeping their place of business orderly and "spruced up"—for the benefit of the whole community.

Georgia and Georgia Tech to Meet In Athens Sat. for Forty-Fifth Time

Georgia and Georgia Tech will battle for the forty-fifth time in football here Saturday at 2 p. m. in a game that has been a sellout (46,000 capacity in Sanford Stadium) since October.

The series began in 1893 with Georgia Tech winning 22-6, but the Bulldogs lead, 22 victories against 17 losses and five ties.

Georgia enters the game with a record of six victories against only one loss and three ties. Georgia Tech has won only four games, lost six.

The state rivals have met four mutual opponents: Louisiana State, Alabama, Florida, and Auburn. The Yellow Jackets fared better against L.S.U. and Auburn than Georgia, but the Bulldogs showed more power against Florida and Alabama than the Yellow Jackets. Georgia Tech upset L.S.U., 13 to 0, while Georgia tied the Bayou Bengals, 13 to 13. Georgia Tech trimmed Florida, 16 to 14, and Georgia won, 6 to 0. Alabama routed Tech, 34 to 19, and nipped Georgia in the last minute.

Sixteen Bulldogs winding up their Sanford Stadium careers are the following seniors:

Ends—John Duke, Albany, Ga.; Fred McManus, Lanett, Ala.; Al Thompson, Thomas, Ga.; Bob Walston, Columbus, O.; and Captain Mike Morola, Newark, N. J. Tackle—Hamp Tanner, Mac-

don, Ga.; Guards—Nick Feher, Youngstown, O.; Robert Greer, Atlanta, Ga.; Center—Bill Bradshaw, Atlanta, Ga.; Quarterbacks—Pat Field, Republic, Pa.; Ray Prosper, Altoona, Pa. Left halfback—Billy Mixon, Tifton, Ga. Right halfback—Gus Hiebovy, Youngstown, O.; Luke Brunson, Florence, S. C. Fullbacks—John Tillitaki, Canton, O.; George Ford, Lowell, Mass.

That Clark Hill Project is a honey. Imagine if you can the duck hunting possibilities as well as the fishing potentialities in back waters forming a lake where the Georgia shore line alone will be something like 1200 miles. Let's not day dream and become so complacent as to think the State Game & Fish Commission can accomplish this miracle alone. The success of the marvelous project is in the hands of the citizens and sportsmen. If the Sportsmen's Clubs get behind this plan, roll up their sleeves and get angry enough to defend this refuge against fish thieves and game bandits, there is no doubt that a successful and satisfactory result will be forthcoming.

PARSONS-WAMMOCK

SYLVANIA, Ga., Nov. 25.—The First Baptist Church of Sylvania formed the setting for the marriage of Miss Carolyn Wammock to Roger Parsons, of Elberton, and Yancey, Ky., Thursday evening, November 24, at 4 o'clock. A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. H. A. Boykin Jr., organist, and A. J. Morris, of Vidalia, soloist. The Rev. Richard Allmon officiated.

Usher-groomsman were Ralph Parsons, brother of the groom, Scotty Perkins, both of Collegeboro, Allen Wammock Jr., brother of the bride, and Lawrence Mountain, brother of the groom. The bridesmaids were Miss Gaynell Parsons, Yancey, Ky., sister of the groom, Miss Betty Rubank, Appling, Miss Ann Altman, and Miss Joann Thompson. Mrs. Allen Wammock Jr., sister-in-law of the bride was her matron of honor.

The bridesmaids wore gowns of American Beauty slipper satin and Mrs. Wammock's dress was ice blue. In their hair they wore ostrich tips to match their gowns and they carried nosegays of pink roses showered with satin ribbons.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, James Allen Wammock, wore a wedding gown of white duchess satin, fashioned with a long fitted waist, sweetheart neckline, outlined in seed pearls, and long sleeves pointed over the hand. The skirt fell into a court train over which the full length lace veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a white prayer book centered with a white orchid and showered with tuberoses.

Mrs. J. A. Wammock, mother of the bride, wore a royal blue dress with black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. R. R. Parsons, mother of the groom, was dressed in aqua with a corsage of pink chrysanthemums and rose accessories.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Chivers, uncle and aunt of the bride, entertained with a reception at their home on South Main street.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Parsons will be at home in Elberton.

MISS WEEKLEY WEDS
WILLIAM ZACK BROWN

The Annie Laurie Warren Chapel of the Peachtree Christian Church was the scene Friday evening, November 24, of the marriage of Miss Corlyn Elizabeth Weekley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas Weekley, of Memphis, to William Zack Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Judson Brown. Dr. Robert W. Burns performed the ceremony.

Dr. Oliver Herbert presented a program of music and Charles Griener was vocalist. Lighted tapers and vases of white flowers on the altar formed the background for the ceremony.

Miss Lillian Weekley, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a dress of emerald green satin fashioned with an off-the-shoulder neckline featuring a fichu caught in the center with a rose which blended into her bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Donald Lundberg, of Tallahassee, Fla., sister of the groom, Mrs. Robert Brown, of Jacksonville, sister-in-law of the groom, and Miss Jean Misset were bridesmaids. They wore emerald green satin dresses fashioned like that of the maid of honor and carried bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums. Sharon and Shirley Awtry, twin cousins of the groom, wore twin dresses over taffeta and carried baskets bedecked with yellow flowers.

Robert Brown, brother of the groom, was best man. Groomsman were William Barber, John Kennedy, and Hobson Donaldson. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white duchess satin gown fashioned with a small, pointed lace collar and yoke of Renaissance lace applied with satin. The bouffant skirt formed a circular train. Caught to a crown of seed pearls, the veil of illusion was bordered with satin applied lace and extended into a train. She carried a cascade bouquet of a white orchid, cyclamen, and tuberoses. Her only ornament was a sapphire jallavere which had been handed down through five generations on her maternal side.

Mrs. Weekley, mother of the bride, wore a gown of peacock blue crepe trimmed with rhinestones. Her corsage was of white camellias. The groom's mother, Mrs. Brown, wore a shell pink gown trimmed with seed pearls and rhinestones. She also wore a white camellia corsage.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Briarcliff Hotel for members of the wedding party, families, and out-of-town guests. Greenery, assorted white flowers, and lighted tapers decorated the room. The bride's table, decorated with clusters of pom-pom chrysanthemums and fern tied with satin ribbons, was centered with a three-tiered cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

When Mr. and Mrs. Brown left on their wedding trip she wore a green gabardine suit with black accessories and the orchid from her corsage.

The couple will reside in Statesboro.

SHOWER-TEA GIVEN FOR RECENT BRIDE

Mrs. Francis Fletcher, recent bride, was the central figure at a lovely shower-tea Tuesday afternoon, November 21, at the home of Mrs. Wilson Hart, with Mrs. Hepderson Hart, Mrs. Jany Jenkins, and Mrs. W. W. W. as joint hostesses. The beautiful home was decorated with chrysanthemums and other fall flowers. Mrs. Frank Smith met the guests at the door.

The receiving line formed in the living room and was composed of Mrs. Wilson Hart, Mrs. Jany Jenkins, Mrs. Francis Fletcher (honoree), her mother, Mrs. George R. Franklin, Mrs. Henderson Hart, and Mrs. Noyce Wamock.

Mrs. C. H. Remington presided in the gift room. The bride's book was kept by Mrs. Fred Fletcher. Mrs. Bruce Atkins and Mrs. Levy Rushing were assisted in serving ice cream, beautifully embossed cakes, nuts, mints, and coffee, by Misses Carolyn Bunce, Jane Smith, and Hazel Thompson.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Barron, of Statesboro, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Wilhelma Mae Barron, to Jesse Elton Mae Barron, of Savannah, formerly of Memphis. The wedding will take place December 23.

GARDEN CLUB TO HEAR AUTHOR, LECTURER

The Civic Garden Club will have as its guests Mrs. Dorothy Bidle, Pleasantville, N. Y., at their meeting Friday, December 1, at the Women's Club room. Mrs. Bidle has won distinction as a speaker and author on flower arrangements. At this meeting which begins at 10 o'clock, Mrs. Bidle will give demonstrations on flower arrangements suitable for the Christmas season. After lunch the club will have a social hour.

Guests were served a traditional Thanksgiving dinner.

DELTA KAPPA GAMA MEETS WITH MISS LEONA NEWTON

The regular meeting of the Eta chapter of the Statesboro Delta Kappa Gamma Society was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Miss Leona Newton on Donaldson street. Miss Reta Lindsey and Mrs. Marjorie Guardia were co-hostesses with Miss Newton. Mrs. Catherine Kirkland, instructional supervisor of Bulloch county, was a guest at the meeting.

The president, Miss Ella Johnston, gave a report on the state meeting held recently in Atlanta. The Eta chapter accepted the project of giving a linen shower to help a Bulloch county girl enter college in early January. Miss Maude White was asked to make a list of the needed articles and pass it on to each member before the shower.

Dr. and Mrs. D. R. Dekle and Mrs. J. G. Tullman left Sunday before Thanksgiving for North Carolina where they visited the daughter.

Agronomist Names Southeast Winner In Cotton Contest

A Bulloch county farmer who had to leave for the Army before his crop was harvested has been named winner in the Southeast Georgia district 1950 five-acre cotton contest, E. C. Westbrook, Extension Service agronomist, announces.

A. S. Hummick Jr. won the honor by producing 12,077 pounds of seed cotton on five acres.

Inaugurated in 1947, the contest is sponsored by the Georgia Cottonseed Crushers Association. Its purpose, Mr. Westbrook said, is to stimulate interest in producing larger, more profitable yields of cotton.

Mr. Hummick planted Coker's 100 Wilt on April 13. A thousand pounds per acre of 12-12 was applied on March 15 before the seed was planted in 42-inch rows.

At planting, 48 pounds of 4-8-8 per acre was used.

The cotton was side-dressed on June 15 with 200 pounds per acre of nitrate of soda, 100 pounds of nitrate of potash and 100 pounds of 12-12. It was side-dressed again on July 7 with 200 pounds of nitrate of soda per acre and 100 pounds of 12-12.

Mr. Hummick's cotton was possessed 13 times, 11 for boll weevils and two for red spider.

Second prize in the district went to Cluise Smith, also from Bulloch county. Mr. Smith grew 10,698 pounds of seed cotton on five acres.
He planted Coker's 100 Wilt breeder seed in 40-inch rows. Five hundred pounds of 4-9-9 was applied at seeding on March 31. The crop was side-dressed June 15 with 75 pounds of nitrate of soda per acre and 100 pounds of muriate of potash per acre. Mr. Smith possessed his cotton six times.

Planting from 40 to 50 acres of cotton annually, this Bulloch farmer averaged around a bale per acre for five years.

M. C. Oliver, Screven county, won third place. He grew 10,340
pounds of seed cotton on five acres.

The Wesleyan Service Guild will meet Tuesday evening, December 5, at 8 o'clock. Misses Ruth Bolton, Louise Bennett, and Ella Johnson are hostesses. Each member is requested to bring a bath towel to be sent in a Christmas package to

THE BULLOCH HERALD

DEDICATED TO THE PROGRESS OF STATESBORO AND BULLOCH COUNTY

STATESBORO, GEORGIA, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1950

VOLUME XI

NUMBER 4

Faith, Hope, Charity; Greatest Is Charity

And now abideth faith, hope, charity; these three; but the greatest of these is charity.—The Bible.

Amid the plenty that exists in Statesboro and Bulloch county there are some who need the desperate.

Beneath our feeling of well-being there lurks the knowledge that there are some who are suffering.

When we sit down about the festive board we'll be knowing that, while we have plenty, there are those who will have only God, Himself, and the charity of His people with them.

In preparing for the Christmas Season, look about you—Is there something you have not done that can help someone who knows only want?

In Bulloch county there is a family—mother, 12-year-old son, daughter, 14-year-old son, and an aged grandmother. The father is dead. The mother, physically unable to work to try to provide for those dependent upon her.

In Bulloch county there is a family—mother, two daughters, 15 and 13 years of age. Their father is dead. And the mother is not physically able to work to support her children.

The Statesboro Junior Chamber of Commerce has elected to do something to try to help these people and others like them through their "Empty Stomach Fund."

They are asking citizens of Statesboro and Bulloch county, in a county-wide effort, to help these people who cannot help themselves.
They are asking only for those things which you do not want.
Old clothes—things you consider worthless.

The Jaycees are acting only as a collecting agency. The things they collect will be distributed by a responsible agency to those whose needs are greatest.

There is a big box erected on the courthouse square where attention is focused upon this project of the Jaycees. Citizens may drop their "worthless" things there or phone any of the following: Dub Lovett at 242, Bernard Scott at 10-R, Bernard Baskin at 260, Roy Hill at 646, Donald McDougald at 59, or Leola Coleman at The Bulloch Herald, 421.

These people will arrange for the "worthless" things you have to be picked up. You just say you don't want them and that you want someone to have it, and it will be collected.

School Kids To Go To Classes December 16

S. H. Sherman, superintendent of the Statesboro public schools, and H. P. Womack, superintendent of the Bulloch county schools, announced this week that all the schools in the county will hold classes on Saturday, December 16.

They explained that there will be no school on Monday, January 1, 1951, and that the Saturday session will make up for the New Year holiday.

Mr. Sherman announced that the Statesboro school will observe its annual "White Christmas" at a chapel program Saturday morning, December 16, at 11 o'clock.
At that time, students of all grades will bring staple foods to be put in baskets to be distributed to needy families in the city and county. Packages wrapped in white paper will be carried to the school auditorium stage by students dressed in white. The churches of the city are cooperating and are furnishing the meats which go to make up the Christmas baskets.

Teachers will furnish the names of those families to receive the baskets.

On that Saturday school will open at 9 o'clock and dismiss at 12. The grammar school program will be held at 9:30, and the special "White Christmas" program at 11 a. m.

Bulloch Farmers to Vote on PMA Committeemen, Peanut Quotas

On December 14 Bulloch County farmers will elect the committeemen who will administer the Agricultural Conservation Program, price support, acreage allotment, marketing quota, and other production programs for 1951.

Voting facilities will be set up in each of the 12 militia districts in the county.

Farmers will select three members of a community committee and a delegate to the county convention where a county committee will be elected.

According to M. L. Taylor, chairman of the Bulloch County Production and Marketing Administration committee, no farmer who is eligible to vote should pass up this opportunity to voice his choice of the three farmers in his community best qualified to administer the 1951 farm programs.

"With the mounting defense activities," said Mr. Taylor, "problems having to do with obtaining fertilizers, seed, construction materials, transportation, etc., can be expected to increase."

"At the election next Thursday, farmers in each militia district will be asked to elect three members of a community committee who will help the local decisions on these matters," he said.

When approved by growers, the marketing quotas are used to apportion the available market for peanuts among growers, thus helping to maintain a reasonable balance between supplies and requirements. Quotas were in effect on the 1949 and 1950 crops. Nearly 90 percent of the growers who voted in the last referendum favored quotas for the three-year period beginning with 1948, but the program was suspended for the 1948 crop because of the world shortage of fats and oils.

Government price support at the full rate provided by law—between 80 and 90 percent of parity for 1951—will also continue to be available to cooperators if quotas are approved in the coming referendum.

If quotas are not approved, price support will be limited by law to 50 percent of parity to cooperating producers.

Voting in the referendum is by secret ballot at polling place in the full rate provided by law—between 80 and 90 percent of parity for 1951—will also continue to be available to cooperators if quotas
are approved in the coming referendum.

The referendum is being conducted under supervision of the County Producing and Marketing Administration (PMA) committee.
Full information is available from the county PMA office in States-boro.

NEVILLS P.T.A. TO MEET
NEXT THURSDAY P.M.

The regular meeting of the Nev-ills Parent-Teacher Association will be held next Thursday afternoon, December 14, at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Hayes made his initial statement at the Rotary Club and pledged his wholehearted efforts to do the best job of which he is capable.

The new manager was presented to the Rotarians by Paul Franklin, Jr., who was chairman of the committee which interviewed many candidates for the position before it agreed upon Mr. Hayes.

Mr. Franklin warned Statesboro businessmen that Mr. Hayes could not get far in his work without the coerced cooperation of them all.

Mr. Hayes comes here from Montezuma, Ga., where he served as manager of the Chamber of Commerce. He has moved here with Mrs. Hayes and their two children.

He told Rotarians, representing the business of this community, that Statesboro has something that most small cities do not have.
He said that he has found it to be an unusual town, a friendly town.
He commended the city on its churches, its schools, recreation program, hospital, library, the college. He said, "Statesboro is a town with facilities that are outside dollars."

He stated that Statesboro's facilities for tourists are outstanding. "It is coming to be known far and wide as 'The Friendly City,' and that carries a lot of weight."

The temporary office of the Chamber of Commerce where Mr.
Hayes will work is located next to Dr. John Mooney's office on Sel-bald street.

A tobacco clinic will be held in the county courthouse on Tuesday, December 12, at 2:30 p. m. Dr. J.
G. Gaines, pathologist at the Coastal Plain Experiment Station, will discuss diseases and insects of tobacco, and E. C. Westbrook, extension tobacco specialist, will discuss growing plants.

Dr. Gaines has been asked to cover the prevention of diseases, and the best known control methods of diseases, as well as insects.
Mr. Westbrook has agreed also to discuss fertilizer recommendations and varieties.

Following the meeting in the courthouse, a field demonstration of weed control methods has been arranged.

Counies adjacent to Bulloch have been invited to participate in the clinic. Tobacco growers from some eight counties are expected to attend this meeting.

It is something of a celebration trip for the group from Bul-loch county. It has been officially announced, according to Mr. Mc-Mell, that Bulloch county's 2,275 members led all other counties in Georgia in membership for another year. This is four years that Bulloch has maintained this lead.
Laurens county, with slightly over 2,000 members, was second, and Colquitt county was third with 1,800 members. The state has slightly more than 80,000 members for 1951.
